

SONGS

BY

FREDERIC MONTON

Maid of the North Sea
New York, N.Y.

Rosemary

There are Violets and Roses

The Wake of Madeline

THE NEW YORK STORE

NEW YORK

NEW YORK

High Voice

Low Voice

Rosemary

GRAHAM ROBERTSON

FREDERIC NORTON

Moving easily Not too fast

For re - mem - brance Rose - ma - ry, Pray love re - mem - ber.

increasing Raise a - new the leaf - clad tree decreasing From the burnt em - ber,

increasing

Sum - mer boughs in sum - mer glee Win - ter's way shad - ing.

tenderly with expression

Rose - ma - ry for mem - o - ry Green, nev - er fad - - -

with the voice

ing. Here is Rose - ma - ry, my dear,

increasing

Take it and tend it; Sun - ny days of yes - ter-year

increasing

decreasing increasing

Sweet per - fume lend it. A - pril in the heart may be decreasing

tenderly with expression

All through De - cem - ber With the breath of Rose - ma - ry,

with the voice

tenderly

Pray love, re-mem - ber.

tenderly mf

When Win - ter day - light dies Earth for-sak - ing,

increasing

Bid but mem - 'ry lend here eyes, May is break - ing,

increasing

f

Bid but mem - 'ry lend — her eyes,

ff

May is — break-

a little quicker ff

ing —