

A River Scene.

The Midsummer Wish

set to Musick by W^r Carey.

Soprano

Waft me some soft & cooling breeze to Windsor's shady kind Retreat; Where silvan scenes wide spreading trees repel the raging Day's heat When tufted Grafs & mossy Beds afford a rural calm Repose; when walking hang their dewy hauls, & fragrant sweets are undisclose.

(Musical notation for soprano part, with various fingerings indicated below the notes.)

Old oozy Thomas that slow's fast by,
 Along the smiling Valley plays;
 His glassy surface chears the Eye,
 And thro' the flowry Meadow strays.
 His fertile Banks with herbage green,
 His Tales with Golden Plenty swell:
 Where'er his juver Stream is seen,
 The Gods of health and Pleasure dwell.

Set me thy Clear thy yonder Wave,
 I'll unclad Arm once more divide:
 In thee my glowing Be my love,
 And stem thy gently rolling Tule.
 Lay me with Danish Roses crown'd,
 Beneath some Ozier's dusky shade:
 Where Water lillies paint the Ground,
 And bubbling Springs refresh the Glade.

Let chaste Clarinda too be there:
 With azure Mantle lightly dress'd:
 Ye Lymphs bind up her silken Hair
 Ye Zephyrs fan her panting Breast.
 Oh! haste away fair Maid & bring
 The muse the kindly Friend to love;
 So thee alone the Muse shall sing,
 And warble thro' the vocal Grove.

Flute
