Comments:	Parts of the tenor voice has been notated an octave higher, and the bass voice has been simplified a little. Apart from that few changes. If you find the piece too long, you can eventually play the bars 1-92 only. It is also worth mentioning that Bach for the same cantata has made a shorter version of this movement (in D Major for alto, organo obligato &amp; cont.). It's movement no. 7 in the cantata, and it contains the bars (20)21-92 only.
