2. I will uprightly judge, when get convenient time I may: The earth is weak and all therein, but I her pillars stay.

3. I did to the mad people say, deal not so furiously: and unto the ungodly ones, set not your horns on high. 4. I said unto them set not up your tallied horns on high: And see that you do with stiff neck not speak presumptuously.

5. For neither from the Eastern part, nor from the Western side: Nor from forsaken wilderness protection doth proceed: 6. For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous Judge alone. Het putteth down the one, and sets another in the throne.

7. For why a cup of mighty wine is in the hand of God: And all the mighty wine therein, himself doth pour abroad. 8. As for the leaks and filthy dregs that do remain of it: The wicked of the earth shall drink and suck them every whit.

9. But I will talk of God I say, of Jacob's God therefore: And will not cease to celebrate his praise for evermore. 10. In sunder break the horn of all ungodly men will I: But then the horns of righteous men, shall be exalted high.

Gloria Patri

To Father, Son and holy Ghost all glory be therefore: As in beginning was, is now, and shall be evermore.

Critical notes:

Bassus bar 2, note 2 is B flat in the original;

Cantus bar 6/note 5: there is no # in the original, but it is in the similar settings of Psalms 118, 149 & 'A Thanksgiving'; this setting is similar to the one of Psalms 39, 92, 99, 118, 149 & 'A thanksgiving' in the same book; text somewhat modernised.
