District of Massachusetts, to wit:

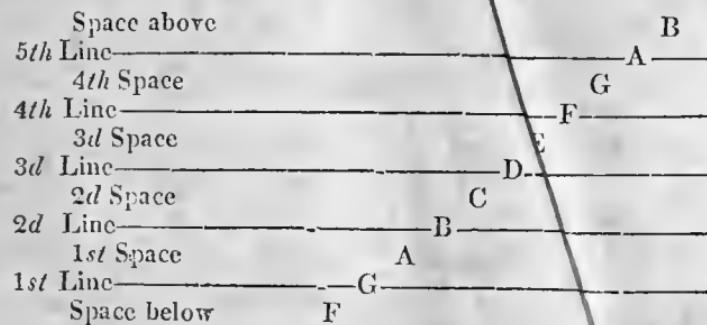

BE IT REMEMBERED, that on the fourteenth day of November in the thirty second Year of the Independence of the United States of America, Samuel Holyoke, of the said District, has deposited in this Office the Title of a Book the Right whereof he claims as Proprietor in the Words following to wit : The Vocal Companion; containing a concise introduction to the practice of Music, and a set of tunes of various metres, arranged progressively for the use of Learners. Compiled by Samuel Holyoke, A. M. In Conformity to the Act of the Congress of the United States, Entitled, "An Act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the Copies of Maps, Charts and Books, to the Authors and Proprietors of such Copies, during the Times therein mentioned;" and also to an Act Entitled, "An Act supplementary to an Act, Entitled, An Act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the Copies of Maps, Charts and Books, to the Authors and Proprietors of such Copies during the times therein mentioned; and extending the Benefits thereof to the Arts of Designing, Engraving and Etching Historical, and other Prints."

WILLIAM S. SHAW. { Clerk of the District of Massachusetts.

INTRODUCTION.

SEVEN Letters are used to represent the original sounds of the Octave; when an eighth letter is required, the first is repeated.

Scale for the Bass.

If there be one Ledger line above the Bass Staff, the Letter is C; if there be two, the Letter is E.

If there be one Ledger Line below the Bass Staff, the letter is E.

The F Cliff

is used only in Bass, being set upon F, 4th line.

Scale for Tenor and Treble.

If there be one Ledger Line above the Treble Staff, the Letter is A; if there be one below, the Letter is C.

The G Cliff

is used in Tenor and Treble, and is set on G, 2d Line.

Scale for the Counter.

If there be one Ledger Line above the Counter Staff, the Letter is B ; if there be two, the Letter is D.

The C Cliff  is used in Counter, and is set upon C, 3d Line.

MUSICAL CHARACTERS.

A Staff

==== is five lines with their spaces.

A Brace || shows how many parts are sung together.

A Ledger line — is added when notes go out of the compass of a staff.

A Flat ♭ governs the Mi, when set before a note it sinks one semitone.

A Sharp ♯ governs the Mi, when set before a note it raises it one semitone.

Both Flats and Sharps, when set at the beginning, have influence through a tune, unless they are contradicted by a natural.

A Natural, restores a letter made flat or sharp, to its primitive sound.

A Repeat  shows what part of a tune is to be sung twice.

A Slur  shows how many notes are to be sung to one syllable.

are used when part of a tune is repeated : The note Figures 1, 2, under figure 1 is sung before the repeat, and the note under figure 2, after the repeat. If they be tied by a slur, both are sung after the repeat.

Point of Addition  set after a note, adds half its original length.

Figure 3, set over or under any three notes with a slur, reduces them to the time of two of the same kind.

Marks of Distinction  show that the notes over which they are set, require particular emphasis.

Hold  signifies that the notes, over which they are set, may be continued at the pleasure of the performer.

Direct  is set at the end of a staff, to direct the performer to the first note in the next staff.

Choosing Notes  are placed one above another, either of which, or both may be sung.

Single bar  divides the notes into proportional parts.

Double bar  shows the end of a strain.

The musical score consists of six staves of music, each with a different clef (G, C, F, G, C, F) and a key signature of one sharp. The music is in common time. The lyrics are integrated into the music, with the first staff starting with "The Lord, the sovereign King, Hath fix'd his throne on high;". The second staff continues with "O'er all the heav'ny". The third staff begins with "O'er all the heav'ny world he rules, And". The fourth staff continues with "O'er all the heav'ny world he rules, And". The fifth staff begins with "all the heav'ny world he rules," followed by a measure of rests. The sixth staff begins with "O'er". The lyrics continue through the remaining staves, with some measures containing only rests or specific rhythmic patterns like eighth-note pairs.

A page from a handwritten musical manuscript for string quartet. The score consists of four staves, one for each instrument: violin I, violin II, viola, and cello. The music is written in common time, with a key signature of one sharp (F#). Measure 10 begins with a dynamic of 60. The first violin plays eighth-note pairs, while the other three instruments provide harmonic support. Measure 11 continues this pattern, maintaining the rhythmic and harmonic structure established in measure 10.

O thou that hear'st when sinners cry, Tho' all my crimes before thee lie, Behold them not with angry look, But blot their mem'ry from thy book.

A musical staff in bass clef and one flat key signature. The tempo is marked as quarter note = 120. The staff begins with a half note, followed by a series of eighth and sixteenth notes.

Create my nature pure within, And form my soul averse from sin, Let thy good spirit ne'er depart, Nor hide thy presence from my heart.

A musical score page showing a single staff of music. The staff consists of five horizontal lines. There are several note heads of different shapes and stems attached to them, indicating a complex rhythmic pattern. The notes include circles, squares, and triangles, each with a stem pointing either up or down. The music is written in a cursive-like hand.

A-way with our sorrow and fear, We soon shall recover our home; The city of saints shall appear, The day of e- ternity's come.

From earth we shall quickly re- move, And mount to our native a- - bode, The house of our Father a - - bove, The palace of angels and God.

Our mourning is all at an end When rais'd by the life giving word, We see the new city des - - cend, A- dorn'd as a bride from her Lord. The cit- y so holy and clean, No sorrow can breathe in the air; No gloom of affliction or sin, No shadow of e- vil is there. By faith we al- ready be- hold That lovely Je- rusalem here, Her walls are of Jasper and gold, As Im-mov-ably founded in grace, She stands as she ever hath stood, And brightly hēr building dis- plays And flames with the glory of God.—

No need of the sun in that day, Which
