First system of a musical score. The treble clef staff contains a melody with eighth-note patterns and rests. The bass clef staff features a steady accompaniment of chords, starting with a forte (ff) dynamic marking.

Second system of the musical score, continuing the melodic and harmonic development from the first system.

Third system of the musical score, showing further progression of the piece.

Fourth system of the musical score, concluding with a double bar line and repeat signs.

Fifth system of the musical score. The treble clef staff begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking and the instruction con espres. (con espressione). The melody is more expressive and features slurs and accents.

Sixth system of the musical score, continuing the expressive melody in the treble clef and the accompaniment in the bass clef.

First system of musical notation, consisting of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The treble staff contains a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece with similar notation to the first system.

TRIO.

Third system of musical notation, starting with the word "TRIO." and the dynamic marking "p scherzando." The notation includes a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff.

Fourth system of musical notation, featuring a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The bass staff includes a dynamic marking of "ff" (fortissimo).

Fifth system of musical notation, featuring a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The treble staff includes a dynamic marking of "mf" (mezzo-forte).

Sixth system of musical notation, featuring a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff.

First system of musical notation, measures 1-4. The piece is in 2/4 time with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The right hand features a melodic line with eighth-note patterns and slurs, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. A dynamic marking of p (piano) is present at the beginning.

Second system of musical notation, measures 5-8. The right hand continues with melodic patterns, including some triplet-like figures. The left hand accompaniment remains consistent with the first system.

Third system of musical notation, measures 9-12. The right hand melody becomes more active with sixteenth-note passages. A dynamic marking of f (forte) is present at the beginning of this system.

Fourth system of musical notation, measures 13-16. The right hand features complex rhythmic patterns and slurs. The left hand accompaniment continues with chords and single notes.

Fifth system of musical notation, measures 17-20. A measure rest of 8 measures is indicated at the start of the system. The right hand melody is highly rhythmic and complex. The left hand accompaniment consists of chords and single notes.

Sixth system of musical notation, measures 21-24. A measure rest of 8 measures is indicated at the start of the system. The right hand features intricate rhythmic patterns and slurs. The left hand accompaniment continues with chords and single notes. A dynamic marking of p (piano) is present at the end of the system.

INCOMPARABLY THE BEST—THE KING OF PIANO INSTRUCTORS—ENDORSED BY PRESS AND PROFESSION.

NATIONAL SCHOOL FOR THE PIANO-FORTE.

EDITED BY W. F. SUDDS.

It is designed, not only for those who desire to become professional pianists, but also for those who aim to become accomplished amateurs, while for those who are compelled to become self-taught players, it will be found the most valuable aid ever published. We would call attention briefly to the following points:

1. It teaches the first principles of music, partly by means of musical writing lessons, to be filled out by the pupil, affording a much clearer and easier way of overcoming first difficulties than other works of the kind contain.
2. The exercises are more carefully graded, introducing the pupil to but one new feature at a time, while in each case the necessary explanations, which are usually left for the teacher to give orally, are, as far as possible, written in detail.
3. The art of fingering, touch, accent, etc., is more fully treated than in average works.
4. It contains full and complete instructions in Harmony and Thorough-bass, subjects all-important, and yet scarcely hinted at in other Piano-forte Methods.
5. It instructs the student in the principles of vocal accompaniment, including playing from a vocal score, thereby preparing him to be an efficient church organist, when necessary; this, too, is peculiar to the work.

6. It is the only piano school which treats, at any length, on the proper use of the so-called, and much-abused, "hard pedal." On this subject alone, the work is of priceless value to the young student.

7. We find among its contents, the subject of musical form, phrasing, etc., made plain and interesting to the pupil.

8. Aside from more than the usual amount of so-called technical matter, there is interspersed a valuable repertoire of piano music, selected from the works of Schubert, Mendelssohn, Mozart, Bach, Beethoven, Brahms, Morckowski and others, with explanatory notes concerning the peculiarities and proper performance of each.

9. And last but not least, is included a dictionary of music, with proper pronunciation of names and musical terms, with biographies of prominent ancient and modern musicians and composers.

That the "National School" opens to the student the shortest and best possible road to proficiency, is beyond a doubt, especially when we consider the well-known ability and recognized talent of the editor, as evinced in former works. And after a glance at the foregoing, it is almost superfluous to say that this book contains more than double the amount of musical information found in any other work of the kind.

The following are selected from hundreds of testimonials fully endorsing the above claims:

WHAT NEW ENGLAND SAYS:

THOMAS F. I. MARSH, Bath, Me.
The "National School" is rightly named. From what I knew of your work in another department, "Amateur Music," I had reason to expect much in your new work, and my expectations are more than met. I find so many new features and such masterly treatment of the whole subject, that I can only say—it is just what we teachers, and our pupils, need. No instruction book that I am acquainted with contains so much, or so clearly defines what we are to do.

JULIUS HICKERING, Boston Conservatory of Music, Boston, Mass.
I find "National School" a useful and well-planned work, well adapted for its purpose and a welcome addition to the many excellent methods that have been published here and in Europe. I wish you all success.

The Pilot, Boston, Mass.
An exhaustive and valuable book.

S. SELLAS, New Haven, Conn.
Our teachers consider "National School" the best of all piano books published in the United States.

C. H. KIRKLAND, Manchester, N. H.
The publisher do not think enough for "National School." It needs a demand never so thoroughly supplied.

A. A. FORTNER, New Haven, Conn.
I consider that "National School" has no rival among American publications.

J. S. HARRIS, Fishkill, Mass.
I can confidently recommend "National School" to all who wish for an instruction book complete in all the details of piano-forte playing.

MRS. LOUIS MAAB, Boston, Mass.
After a careful survey of "National School," I am very glad to tell you that I think it one of the very best books of that description that has been brought under my notice. It is simple, concise, concise and yet exhaustive—containing everything that can be sought for in anything of the kind. I shall be glad to recommend and use it as far as it is in my power.

WHAT THE MIDDLE STATES SAY:

Albany (N. Y.) Morning Express.
Desired to have a large sale.

MORGAN & HAPPOD, Middletown, N. Y.
Our teachers are well pleased with "National School."

Mills, Pa. Chronicle-Herald.
An admirable and exhaustive work.

Harrisburg (Pa.) Independent.
Contains more than double the amount of useful information found in any other book of the kind.

OSO. F. HERRON, Philadelphia, Pa.
I find "National School" an excellent work. As a book for teachers of the piano-forte, I can strongly recommend it.

HARRY ROBERTS, Easton, Pa.
I have been very partial to Richardson's justly popular method, but hoped some time to see a method more complete in some respects and with clearer explanations to scholars of many pending details. I find that "National School" has all the merits of Richardson's, with the following additional ones, viz: Entertaining and instructive details; remarks upon the proper use of the pedals; clear explanation of the various embellishments; latest studies of modern masters, Heller, Kuller, Liszt, and others; the exercises upon concert and remarks upon vocal accompaniment; the excellent musical and geographical dictionary, and, by no means the least important, the fine treatise on harmony with its numerous examples.

JAS. N. HARR, Philadelphia, Pa.
The "National School" has been examined at length. It gives me pleasure to endorse its completeness and the clearness wherewith all the preliminary points have been treated set forth, as well as the judgment displayed in the selection of the various studies, etc. I have nothing but praise, furthermore, for the writing lessons, the several dictionaries, and the short but satisfying treatise on harmony.

A. R. EVERETT, Allentown, Pa.
"National School" is a very thorough and concise work, it certainly contains everything that can be desired by teacher or pupil.

ALAN GREEN, Philadelphia, Pa.
In every way I find "National School" the most practical work for that kind of instruction—the piano—that has ever been brought to my notice, and I feel that I can say confidently, and without presumption, that it is not only a thoroughly satisfactory and complete encyclopedia, which I can recommend most heartily to the profession.

A. M. ROBERTS, Philadelphia, Pa.
I have thoroughly examined "National School," and have no hesitation in pronouncing it one of the best and most thorough instruction books ever seen. Mr. Suds's method is very new and original, and in his work, which cannot fail to prove of great value.

JNO. B. SWENY, Chester, Pa.
I think "National School" a grand success in every way.

JNO. P. DOUGHERTY, Chester, Pa.
"National School" is certainly the best piano instructor ever published in this country.

G. W. SHEPHERD, Ayrton, N. Y.
I consider "National School" one of the best of any piano school I have ever seen.

W. W. OILCHURCH, Philadelphia, Pa.
"National School" is a most excellent and progressive work for the piano student, and I am pleased to have the opportunity of expressing my approval of its many good points.

MARGAN M. WALKER, Philadelphia, Pa.
"National School" is an admirable work, having the different grades of study well systematized and sufficiently varied, without being too voluminous.

LOUIS HERRON, New York.
I have carefully examined "National School," and find it very thorough work, superior to any method published.

ANNA BELLE FORD, Haverhill, Pa.
"National School" is an admirable work.

DUDLEY BUCK, Brooklyn, N. Y.
I have examined "National School" and am glad to say that I think you have provided a good work, covering all the essential points of piano-playing, and which, properly made use of, cannot fail to produce good players. I trust that you will be rewarded for the labor and pains you have evidently taken.

Music and Drama, New York.
"National School" will prove an exceedingly useful work, containing, as it does, a vast amount of information in a condensed form; and most of the studies and pieces are such as will prove useful to the student in forming the hand and acquiring "touch."

WHAT THE SOUTHERN STATES SAY:

WM. H. BAKER, Wheeling, W. Va.
I consider "National School" the best and most comprehensive I have ever had for sale.

Wheeler (W. Va.) Register.
A valuable book of instruction and reference.

S. R. DOYLE, Washington, D. C.
I think "National School" a very complete work. It contains all the great requisites of an instructor—thoroughness, progression, comprehensiveness as a word, completeness; leaving the pupil with nothing to be desired.

WHAT THE WESTERN STATES SAY:

J. H. CARRISON, Indianapolis, Ind.
I think "National School" supplies a long-felt want. All teachers pronounce it first class.

Superior (Cal.) Daily Evening Union.
This book is all that is claimed for it.

Chicago (Ill.) Inter-Course.
A valuable book of instruction and reference.

R. A. KIRK, Knoxville, Ill.
I am highly pleased with "National School," and think it one of the most complete works on piano technique that I have used. I shall adopt it with my pupils.

H. J. VOYTER, Cleveland, O.
Your "National School" I find to be a most excellent work, it has so many advantages over every method of the kind, that it cannot fail to take the lead.

A. L. HANCOCK & Co., San Francisco, Cal.
"National School" is a fine work.

L. O. LOCKIE, La Crosse, Wis.
"National School" is certainly a very fine work, and pronounced so by all who have seen it.

HARVEY BAKER, Lapeer, Mich.
The use of "National School" should be instructional, for it has more features of merit than any other similar work. Its illustrations and explanations are a great assistance to the teacher and its many other good things are all appreciated. It is the best.

MRS. M. W. KIMBY, Plymouth, Ind.
I have examined your "National School," and pronounce it an excellent work.

G. W. WALKER, Evansville, Ind.
"National School" is, without doubt, one of the most common-sense instructors. I wish you the success the world of the book deserves.

WILL L. THOMPSON, the popular song writer, East Liverpool, Ohio.
I am very much pleased with "National School." It shows careful work of a thorough musician. I believe it will become a standard.

J. H. LAMAR, FAYETTE, OHIO.
"National School" is the best book of its class I have ever examined—but for beginners, but for intermediate, but for advanced pupils. It is an instruction book, an encyclopedia, a history and biography combined in one. It has no superior and is the work of a masterly musician. Our pianist, Mrs. Perry, agrees with me.

C. J. WETTER, Detroit, Mich.
Suds' "Piano Method" is the best work of the kind we ever saw and it will certainly become popular.

CANADA'S VERDICT.

CARL MANTON, Toronto, Ontario.
I can truly say that I see no wish to admit to your "National School." I think it the best school of its kind, and it will certainly have a very large sale amongst the more prominent teachers in Canada and the United States.

London (Ont.) Catholic Record.
It will be found the most valuable aid ever published.
