CÉSAR FRANCK

Musician and Mystic

At no time in human history has there been as great a need as now for music of the ethereal quality of Cesar Franck's.

For, amid all the fret and fever of life, the music of Cesar Franck comes with a healing touch, and a message of unworldly beauty. Here, indeed is a great mystic; a master of melody and modulation; a composer whose music bears the impress of a tranquil and other-wordly mind.
