

Copyright
May 1890

Library of the
May 11 1900
New York

To our Mutual Friend,
Mr. John A. Lowell, of Boston.

BOSTON
White & Gould,
86 Tremont St.
Wm. A. Pond & Co. N.York. Geo. F. Root & Sons Chicago.
Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1890 by White & Gould in the Office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington

B E R E F F

Words by J.C. GOODWIN.

Music by EDWARD E. RICE.

Andante moderato.

PIANO. con espressione.

VOICE.

1 Soft are the winds that go sigh - ing, Bearing me sweets in their
 2 Well I re - mem ber our plight - ing, When love that si - lent had 3 Come back to me oh my trea - sure! Bring me one mo - ment of breath; _____ Sun-shine a - round and a - bout me is ly - ing, Yet I of lain, _____ Found in her sighs, ill sup-press'd, and in - vi - ting, Could not un - bliss! _____ Held by thine arms, let me faint with the pleasure, Born in the joy am be - left, _____ Ro-ses have come with the sun - shine, spo - ken re - main, _____ Blushes were an - swer suf - fi - cing;

 sweets of thy kiss! _____ Vain are my wish - es and call - ing,

Vi - o - lets lift their blue eyes; _____ She, who than flowret was fair - er,
 Love was en - shroud in her eyes; _____ Ah, that such moments are fleet - ing,
 Pray'rs un - a - vail - ing a - rise; _____ Gloom of de - spair o'er me brood - eth,

Un - der the daf - fo - dils lies. _____ Soft are the winds that go
 She, 'neath the daf - fo - dils lies. _____ Soft are the winds, &c.
 She, 'neath the daf - fo - dils lies. _____ Soft are the winds, &c.

sigh - ing, Bear - ing me sweets in their breath;

Sun - shine a - round and a - bout me is ly - ing, Yet I of joy am be -

1st & 2^d times. After Last Verse.

reft. am be - reft.

ritard.

p ritard. pp