The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in two systems. The first system contains the first two lines of the song, and the second system contains the next two lines. The notation is written on four-line staves. The first line of each system is a vocal line with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The second line of each system is a piano accompaniment line with a bass clef. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The first system ends with a double bar line, and the second system continues the melody and accompaniment.

The image shows a musical score for a song titled "The Rose Tree". The score is written for a vocal line and a guitar accompaniment. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The score is divided into two systems. The first system contains four measures, and the second system contains four measures. The vocal line is written on a single staff, and the guitar accompaniment is written on a six-string guitar staff. The melody is simple and catchy, with a chorus that repeats. The guitar accompaniment provides a steady rhythm with chords and single notes.
