

Author of Light

Thomas Campion (1567-1620)

Two Bookes of Ayres (c.1613)

Cantus
 Altus
 Tenor
 Bassus

Au - thor of light re - vive my dy - ing spright, Re -
 Au - thor of light re - vive my dy - ing spright, Re -
 Au - thor of light, of light, re - vive my dy - ing spright, Re -

5

Re - deeme it from the snares of all con - found - ing night.
 deeme it from the snares, re - deeme it from the snares of all con - found - ing night.
 deeme it from the snares, re - deeme it from the snares of all con - found - ing night.
 deeme it from the snares of all con - found - ing night, con - found - ing night.

10

Lord, light me to thy bless - ed way: For blinde, for Lord, light mee to thy bless - ed way: For blinde, for Lord, light me to thy bless - ed way: For blinde with Lord, light me to thy bless - ed way: For blinde, for blinde with world - ly vaine de - sires, I wan - der as a blinde with world - ly vaine de - lights, I wan - der as a world - ly vaine de - sires I wan - der, wan - der as a blinde with world - ly vain de - sires I wan - der as a 15

 stray: Sunne and Moone, Starres and un - der-lights I see. But all their glor - stray, Sunne and Moone, Starres and un - der - lights I see: But stray. Sunne and Moone, Starres and un - der lights I see: But all, all their stray. Sunne and Moone, Starres and un - der-lights I see: But all their 20

 - ious beames are mists and dark - nesse being com - par'd to thee.
 all their glor - ious beames are mists com - par'd with thee.
 glor - ious beames are mists and dark - nesse being com - par'd to thee.
 glor - ious beames are mists and dark - nesse be - ing com - - par'd to thee.