In response to many calls the present book is issued in the figure notation.

I have named it SONGS OF GLORY No 2, because, in its preparation, I have kept in view the points that made the former book so popular, and hope to have succeeded in imitating its good qualities sufficiently to entitle it to a place second only to its MODEL PREDECESSOR.

With many thanks to the contributors, and a hearty "God speed" to the book and its friends,

I am, yours truly,

JAS. H. FILLMORE.

THE ROCK AND THE SAND.

1. On what are you build-ing my brother,
2. On one, or the oth - er, my brother,
3. Your Sav - ior has warned you, my brother,

I pray you give heed to his voice;

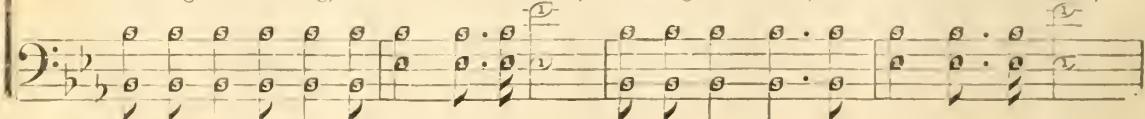

Is it loose shifting sand or the firm solid rock, You are trusting for a - ges to come?
You are risking your soul on the works that you do, Will the dark wa - ters sweep you a - way?
There is life on the rock, but death on the sand, Oh, my brother, pray tell me your choice.

 And I know that he means me.

R. M. MCINTOSH.

A home missionary visited a dying boy in a gipsy tent. Bending over him he said, "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have ever-lasting life." The dying boy heard, and whispered, "Nobody ever told me."

Theme from SHAW.

 He conquers his foes by the pow'r of his love, Oh, say, shall that kingdom be mine?
 To him let us bow, and his praise let us sing, His ban-ner be ev - er un - furled.
