Make a rhyme to lovely June,
When the world is all in tune,
Gay with green is every bower,
Glad and golden every hour;
Raindrops fall to kiss the flowers,
In their fleeting rainbow showers,
Blue skies, roses, hearts in tune;
That's the world in June!

Leave the tinsel of the town,
For the country's flower crown,
In June's gleaming diadem
Each fair blossom is a gem;
Streams with lilies fair impearled,
June is such a lovely world,
Silvery morning, golden noon;
That's the world in June!
