Alto

Trumel.

A musical score for Alto and Trumel parts. The score consists of five staves. The first staff is the Alto part, starting with a large, ornate initial 'A' and a treble clef. The second staff is the Trumel part, starting with a treble clef. The text 'Audate dominus de celis' is written below the first staff. The music is written in a historical style with various note values and rests.

Audate dominus de celis

Alto

Grindel.

Handwritten musical score for Alto, titled "Grindel". The score consists of five staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The second staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The third staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The fourth staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The fifth staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The music is written in a style characteristic of 18th or 19th-century manuscript notation, featuring various note values, rests, and bar lines.

Alus

Lumcl.

Handwritten musical notation on two staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 3/4 time signature. It contains a series of notes, including a dense sequence of sixteenth notes, followed by a double bar line and a repeat sign. The second staff continues the notation with more notes and a final double bar line.

Four empty musical staves, each consisting of five horizontal lines, arranged vertically below the first two staves.
