

THOU ART GONE AWAY MARY,
A FAVORITE BALLAD,

Sung by

JOSEPH H. Mc CANN,

Words by

R. T. Cosby, Melody by a Lady,

ARRANGED FOR THE

PIANO FORTE

and Respectfully dedicated to

MISS MARY THOMASSON.

Piano. Accom^t 25 cts nett.

Guitar Accom^t 25 cts nett.

Published by PETERS & WEBB, Louisville, Ky.

THOU ART GONE AWAY MARY.

Arranged by H.J. Peters.

Andante
Semplice.

2nd Dost thou think of me, Ma...ry, In the twi...light dim; And Thou art gone a...way Ma...ry, Gone a...way from me, And gen...tlest thoughts come thronging then, With the even...ing hymn.

thick...ly do the tears come, When I think of thee.

When the stars are bright, Ma...ry, Then I muse on thee, Thou Spring is coming soon Ma...ry, Lovely smiling May; But dream...est too of home, Ma...ry, Dost thou think of me.
what are blossoms now, Ma...ry, Thou art gone a...way.

1290

But thou art gone a...way, Ma...ry, Left us all to pine, To look around our

But thou art far more dear, Ma..ry, In those moments sad, When thought is ting'd with home's dear forms, All are there, but thine, Tho' ma..ny friends are near, Ma...ry, gloomy hues And nought is bright or glad, I fondly turn to thee, Ma...ry,

Cherished ones are they, Yet dearest of them all, Ma..ry, Thou art gone a...way.

My weary mood to cheer, And then, tho' ever lov'd, Mary, Thou art far more dear.