To win the love of thee, I would the wealth of worlds re—sign; For

p

life has nought for me, But one sole wish to call thee mine.

All other joys of life no more, From me a thought should claim, Thou art the idol I a—dore, My happiness and — fame. To win the love of thee, I would the wealth of worlds re—sign; For life has nought for me, But one sole wish to call thee mine.

p

Andantino.
2d Verse. Strive not with ornament to hide Thy beauty's opening flower, Sim—pli-city should be thy pride, For therein lies thy pow'r. To win &c.

Andantino.
3d Verse. Of constancy the model I, To wandering eyes should prove, For I would only wish to die, If e'er I lost thy love. To win &c.
