EIGHT NEW NURSERY RHYMES.

I.

The Apology

When I was a little boy I had but little wit,
It is some time ago, and I've no more yet ;
Nor ever ever shall until that I die,
For the longer I live the more fool am I.

II.

Old Woman

Old woman, old woman, shall we go a-shearing ?
Speak a little louder, sir, I'm very thick of hearing.
Old woman, old woman, shall I love you dearly ?
Thank you, kind sir, I hear you very clearly!

III.

A Tragedy

There were two birds sitting on a stone,
One flew away, then there was one ;
T'other flew after, then there was none,
And so the poor stone was left all alone.
Fa, la, la, la, dee.

IV.

A little old Man

A little old man and I fell out ;
How shall we bring this matter about ?
Bring it about as best you can,
Get you gone, you little old man !

V.

The fly and the humble bee

Fiddle de dee, fiddle de dee
The fly has married the humble bee.
Says the fly, says he, will you marry me,
And live with me, sweet humble bee ?
Says the bee, says she, I'll live under your wing,
And you'll never never know that I carry a sting.
So when the parson had joined the pair,
They both went out to take the air.
And then to think that of all the flies,
The humble bee should take the prize.

VI.

Bless you

Bless you, bless you, bonny bee,
Say, when will your wedding be ?
If it be to-morrow day,
Take your wings and fly away.

VII.

An old Cradle Song

Sleep, baby, sleep !
Our cottage vale is deep.
The little lamb is on the green
With woolly fleece, so soft and clean.
Sleep, baby, sleep !
Down where the woodbines creep.
Be always like the lamb so mild,
A kind and sweet and gentle child.
Sleep, baby, sleep !
Sleep !

VIII.

O my little sixpence

O my little sixpence, my pretty little sixpence,
I love sixpence better than my life !
I spent a penny of it,
I lent a penny of it,
And I took fourpence home to my wife.
O my little fourpence, my pretty little fourpence,
I love fourpence better than my life !
I spent a penny of it,
I lent a penny of it,
And I took twopence home to my wife.
O my little twopence, my pretty little twopence,
I love twopence better than my life !
I spent a penny of it,
I lent a penny of it,
And I took nothing home to my wife,
O my little nothing, my pretty little nothing,
I love nothing—
I love nothing better than my wife !
