The first system of the piano introduction features a treble and bass staff in B-flat major, 4/4 time. The treble staff begins with a whole rest, followed by a series of chords and a melodic line. The bass staff plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment.

The second system continues the piano introduction. It includes a forte (f) dynamic marking and features more complex rhythmic patterns in both staves, including sixteenth-note runs in the bass.

The third system of the piano introduction concludes with a rall. ff (rallentando, fortissimo) marking. The treble staff has a dense texture of chords, while the bass staff has a simpler accompaniment.

The vocal entry consists of two staves. The top staff has the lyrics "Broth - er of the sun and the moon In" and the bottom staff has "Broth - er of the sun and the moon In". The melody is simple and hymn-like.

The piano accompaniment for the vocal entry is shown in a grand staff. It features a simple harmonic accompaniment with a forte (f) dynamic marking, supporting the vocal melody.
