The musical score consists of four systems of music.
 System 1: Features a vocal line for 'Abdallah.' and a piano accompaniment. The vocal part starts with a rest followed by a single note. The piano part features a steady eighth-note bass line and eighth-note chords in the treble clef.
 System 2: Continues with the vocal line for 'Abdallah.' and the piano accompaniment. The vocal part begins with a melodic line: 'Is . lam first a . rose, A tow'r up . on a rock, Be .neath her haughty bat . tlements Were'. The piano part provides harmonic support with eighth-note chords.
 System 3: Continues with the vocal line for 'Abdallah.' and the piano accompaniment. The vocal part continues: 'rang'd a . round the jeal . ous tents Of swift . en . cir . cling foes! Then'. The piano part maintains its eighth-note harmonic pattern.
 System 4: Continues with the vocal line for 'Abdallah.' and the piano accompaniment. The vocal part concludes with: 'all her gates did Is . lam lock, As ev . 'ry Mos . lem'. The piano part ends with a final chord.
 The score is written in common time, with a key signature of one flat. Measure numbers are present above the vocal line in each system. The tempo is indicated as 'Allegro moderato con decisione. ($\text{♩} = 104$)'.

DANCE.

A musical score for piano, featuring two staves (treble and bass) in a key signature of four flats (B-flat major or A-flat minor). The music consists of five staves of music, each ending with a repeat sign and a double bar line, indicating a section that can be repeated. The first four staves are identical, consisting of a series of eighth-note chords followed by eighth-note bass notes. The fifth staff begins with a sixteenth-note pattern in the treble clef, followed by eighth-note chords and bass notes. The score includes dynamic markings such as f (fortissimo), r (riten.), cres. (crescendo), and rit. (riten.). Measure numbers are present above the first four staves, and measure 11 is indicated above the fifth staff.

TRIO.

(Rose-in-Bloom, Scent-of-Lilies, and Heart's Desire.)

Allegro con brio. ($\text{♩} = 120$)

Piano.

The musical score consists of four staves. The top two staves are for the Piano, in G minor (two sharps) and common time. The bottom two staves are for two groups of High Trombones (Hts. D.), also in G minor and common time. The vocal parts are integrated into the instrumental parts. The first section starts with the piano playing eighth-note chords. The vocal parts enter with the lyrics "If you ask me to advise you, Finish". The piano accompaniment changes to a eighth-note pattern. The second section begins with the piano playing eighth-note chords again, and the vocal parts continue with the lyrics "what you have begun; No one here can re - cove -". The piano accompaniment changes to a eighth-note pattern. The third section begins with the piano playing eighth-note chords again, and the vocal parts continue with the lyrics "- nise you- We are sure of lots of fun! Full of". The piano accompaniment changes to a eighth-note pattern.

The musical score consists of five systems of music. The top four systems feature vocal parts: PHY. (Soprano), SUL. (Alto), VIZ. (Tenor), and EXE. (Bass). Each vocal part has a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The vocal parts sing the word "vish!" on a single note. The bottom system features a piano/bass part, indicated by a bass clef and a treble clef. This part provides harmonic support with chords and rhythmic patterns. The piano/bass part includes dynamic markings such as ff (fortissimo) and tr (trill).

The musical score consists of five systems of music. The first system shows the piano part (two staves) and the beginning of the Chorus part. The second system continues the piano part and introduces the Chorus part with the lyrics 'O luck less hour!'. The third system shows the piano part and the beginning of the Chorus part with the lyrics 'Oh, quake and cow'r!'. The fourth system continues the piano part and concludes the Chorus part with the lyrics 'Let'. The fifth system shows the piano part continuing. The score uses common time, a key signature of one flat, and includes various musical markings such as fermatas, grace notes, and dynamic changes.
