

Rose of Killarney

Words by George Cooper

Music by John Rogers Thomas

Andantino

1. Oh, —
2. My —

7

G C/G G C/G G

prom - ise to meet me when twi - light is fall - ing, Be - side the bright wa - ters that heart is a nest that is robbed and for - sak - en When gone from my sight is the 10

A7/E D G C/G G C/G

slum - ber so fair; Each bird in the mead - ow your name will be call - ing, And girl that I love! One word from your lips can my glad - ness a - wak - en, Your

Rose of Killarney

13

G C G D7 G Em

ev - 'ry sweet rose - bud will look for you there; It's morn - ing and eve - ning, for smile is the smile of the an - gels a - bove! Then meet me at twi - light be -

16

B7/D# Em A7/C# D A7/E A7(omit 5) D

you I am sigh - ing. The heart in my bos - om is yours ev - er - more; I'll side the bright wa - ters, The love that I've told you, I'd whis - per once more; Oh, —

19

G C/G G C/G F C/G G

watch for you, dar - ling, when day - light is dy - ing, Sweet rose of Kil - lar - ney, Ma - sweet - est and fair - est of E - rin's fair daugh - ters, Dear rose of Kil - lar - ney, Ma -

22

G/D D7(omit 5) G

your - neen As - tore!
your - neen As - tore!

rall.