Critical notes:

This score is the first modern edition of the song “Granen ved Lougen” (The Fir Tree at the Lougen River) by the Danish composer “Ida Henriette da Fonseca” (1806-1858). For information on the composer see the article in “Dansk Kvindesbiografisk Leksikon”, <http://www.kvinfo.dk/side/597/bio/677/origin/170/query/fonseca/> by Lisbeth Ahlgren Jensen and, by the same author, “Det kvindelige spillerum”, Multivers, Copenhagen 2007. The source of this song is 2 printed volumes of solo songs with piano accompaniment “Romancer med Pianoforte-Accompagnement” published in Copenhagen by J.D.Qvist 1848-1853, preserved at the Royal Library of Copenhagen, Denmark. According to Lisbeth Ahlgren Jensen we have no other sources like manuscripts, sketches etc. of Ida Fonseca’s compositions.

The poem by the Norwegian bishop, playwright and poet Johan Storm Munch (1778–1832) was first published in “Fjeldblomster”, Christiania (Oslo) 1813. Ida da Fonseca dedicated this song to mrs. “P. Tutein”, Josepha Aloisia Francisca Romalia Anna Maria Tutein (1806–1866), called “Pepina”. Pepina was daughter of Ida’s singing teacher, the Italian born chorus director at the Royal Theatre in Copenhagen, Guiseppe Siboni (1780–1839).

This modern edition comes in 2 variants, an ‘urtext’ edition and a modernized edition. The urtext edition generally attempts to keep close to the original printing but may silently amend inconsequences in the use of short cut notations like repeated musical figures. In the modernized edition all notation short cuts have been expanded, the beaming of the vocal staff has been adapted to modern practices, and performance indications in the vocal staff have been copied to the right hand piano staff.

Ida Fonseca was a professional singer but never received an education as a composer. This is probably why you may encounter music technical flaws in the piano accompaniment. In the modernized the editor has amended some of these flaws, with corresponding annotations in the critical notes.
