SHOWER OF STARS.

PLUIE D'ETOILES.

CAPRICE.

PAUL WACHS.

Maestoso.

Allegretto. M.M. ♩ = 132.

The musical score is written for piano and right-hand. It consists of five systems of music. The piano part is marked 'una corda' and the right-hand part is marked 'p scintillante'. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and fingerings. The tempo is marked 'Maestoso' and 'Allegretto. M.M. ♩ = 132.'.

Handwritten '4' in the top left corner. The system consists of a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. The treble staff contains a continuous eighth-note melody with various accidentals (flats and naturals). The bass staff features a simple accompaniment of quarter notes and rests. A bracket labeled 'una corda' is positioned below the bass staff.

The second system continues the musical piece. The treble staff melody is more complex, including some sixteenth-note passages. The bass staff accompaniment remains consistent with the first system.

8

The third system features a more intricate treble staff melody with many accidentals and some triplets. The bass staff continues with its accompaniment. A bracket is visible below the bass staff.

The fourth system shows a return to a simpler treble staff melody. The bass staff accompaniment is consistent. A dynamic marking of 'p' (piano) is present in the treble staff.

8

The fifth system continues the piece with a treble staff melody that includes some sixteenth-note runs. The bass staff accompaniment is consistent with the previous systems.

Piano Offerings for Moderately Advanced Players

FURNISHING RECITAL AND STUDY MATERIAL
BY FOREMOST CONTEMPORARY WRITERS

A Scintillating Piano Number

Waltz in Octaves is an excellent number for concert or recital purposes, one that will find instant favor with almost any audience. It consists of the figure shown in the accompanying cut, a like figure for the left hand, a middle passage in arpeggios and a brilliant finale in octaves.

FROM THE FAR EAST

Six Orientals for the Pianoforte

By George Tompkins

Price, $1.00

The piano player who enjoys something out of the ordinary for recreation, motion-picture playing, etc., will be delighted with this genuine novelty. There is a fascination about the music of the Far East and these pieces are based on Oriental rhythms and to some extent on Oriental tonality. The set consists of six melodious and cleverly harmonized numbers, titled as follows: Prelude, Invocation to Allah, Ghawazi Dance, Ouled Nail, Lover's Lament and Street Music.

POPULAR SALON ALBUM

A Collection of 35 Brilliant Pieces for Pianists of Average Ability

Price, 75 cents

Each of the pieces in this collection was selected because it possessed all the elements of popularity that should be found in a number for the drawing-room, tunefulness above everything, brilliance without difficulty and, in addition, a certain quality of elegance. Most of them are in grades three and four and none has ever appeared in any other collection of piano music.

ADORATION—Felix Borowski—Grade 4

Price, 50 cents

Adoration, by Felix Borowski, long a favorite with violinists, has recently been transcribed for piano solo and a trial of this little excerpt will show that it has lost nothing in the transcription. This piece is frequently used for playing in church, lodge and at other religious services. It is also published for pipe organ and for cello and piano.
