4th Verse.

Dear are thy relics, which keep in re-membrance Times of our Fathers, the days of lang syne;

Dear is the "Hall", which thy blest "Inde-pendence" Ever makes sacred, as Liber-ty's shrine.

Dearest of all is thy wise Consti-tu-tion! Hallow'd the rights by that instrument giv'n!

Plotters of treason-as just retri-bution- Merit thy wrath, and the vengeance of Heav'n! Plotters of treason-as just retri-bution- Merit thy wrath, and the vengeance of Heav'n! Chorus. Grateful and &c

5th Verse

Strengthening the ties of their holy re-lation, Oh! may thy States through the ages of time, Blest by Je-hovah, progress as a nation, Great in its goodness, in Freedom, sub-lime!

Then shall thy sons, 'neath thy star-lighted banner, One in their purpose, a brotherhood be,

Chanting the anthem of Freedom: "Ho-sanna! God and our Union the Hope of the Free!" Chanting the anthem of Freedom: "Ho-sanna! God and our Union! the Hope of the Free!" Chorus. Grate-ful and &c
