Martiale.

Our na - tive land! Our na - tive land! For thee, thou lustre of the world! Still firm u - ni - ted shall we stand, With sa - bre drawn and flag un - furl'd

The leg - a - cy our fathers left, By Freedom sanction'd, still is ours Nor shall our no - ble tree be reft, While ev' - ry branch is dress'd in flow'rs!

Tasto

Huz - za ! Huzza ! sons of the free ! Strike, strike the bolt from Treason's hand, For God_ for Fame_ and Liber - ty, For Un - ion and our Native Land !

Repeat as Chorus

2

Our Country dear— Our Country dear!
 Shall Faction spurn thy holy laws?
 Shall Freedom's sword and Freedom's spear
 Be wielded in disunion's cause?
 Thy fairy fields, shall they be strew'd
 With brothers slain by brother's hand?
 Shall fathers raise their arms of blood
 Against the ensign of our land?
 Huzza &c.

3

Our starry flag! Our starry flag!
 Whose eagle sits enthroned in light,
 Shalt thou not wave o'er hill and crag,
 Triumphant in the hour of fight?
 Let him who swells Rebellion's cry,
 In civil strife, once turn to thee,
 A Patriot's tear will fill his eye,
 His bright sword strike for Liberty!
 Huzza &c.

Our native land.
