

On a River's Margin, or
THE LITTLE TROUBADOUR,

As sung with unbounded applause by

Miss Duncan,

Accompanied By Herself on the HARP.

At the Lyceum Theatre,

In the Opera of

THE PEASANT BOY,

Written by W^m Dinond, Esq^r

Composed by

Mich^l Kelly.

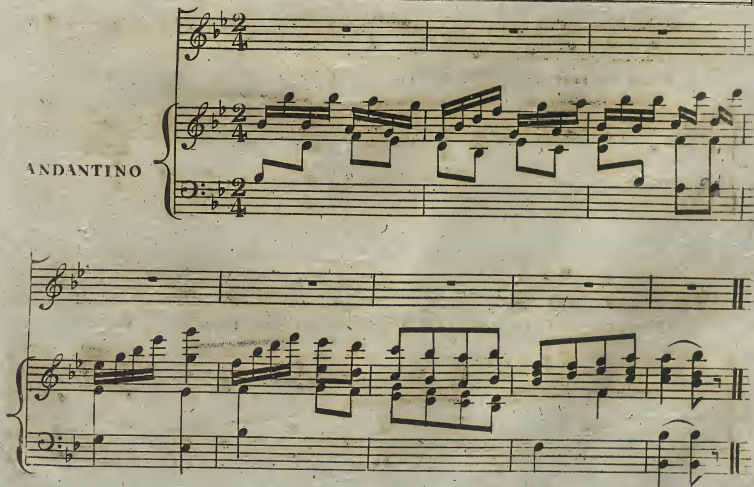

M^l

in. Str. Hall.

PR 1/6

Sold by C. MITCHELL, at his Musical Circulating Library & Instrument Warerooms, 51, Southampton Row, Russell Square.

ANDANTINO

On a Rivers mar-gin a Trou-ba-dour sate play...ing

Dear Vancluse my birth place far your Son is stray--ing home a-lass is dis---tant friends are seen no more

Dul-ce dul-ce domum sing the lit-tle Trouba--dour

Chaunting wild Ro--man--ces Hill and Val--ley ranging

Hall and Bow's re--ceive him yet his heart un--changing thro such varied travel home must he de---plore

dul--ce dul--ce domum sing the lit--tle Trouba--dour

Lords and Ladies hear him whilst his wild Harp playing Coin both Gold and Silver his Ballad lay re-pay-ing The wandring boy with riches Home may meet once more dulce dulce domum sing the little Troba-dour

FOR THE FLUTE

Andantino