ILLVSTRISIME Princeps, Domine clementissime, adferuntur indies ad nos insignium Cantionum libri, à præstantissimis totius Italiae Musicis elaborati, atq; typis in lucem editi: Verum pleraq; istarum Cantionum ejus sunt generis, ut vel in honorem illustrium & magnificarum personarum compositæ, vel ad privatam hominum delectationem destinatae sint: vix autem minima pars ita sit comparata, ut in Scholis & Templis ad sacros religiosorum cultuum usus, quibus præcipuè Musica servire debet, adhiberi possit. Quocirca & precia librorum istorum tanta sunt, ut ab iis redimen-dis multi honesti homines non sine molestia absterreantur. Huic igitur difficultati ut aliquo modo occurrerem, & Scholis aliisq; qui liberali Musices exercitio delectantur, meo loco hac in parte consulerem, collegi ex præcipuis exemplaribus, quæ quidem ex Italia hoc tempore ad nos pervenerunt, non contemnendum numerum eiusmodi Cantionum, quæ ad præci-pua totius anni festa accommodatae, in templis religiosè usurpari atq; cantari possunt. Eas autem Illustrissime & Clemen-tissime Princeps, in unum quasi corpus redactas, sub Illustrissimo Celsitudinis Vestrae nomine typis ideo evulgare volui, ut ostenderem animi grati significationem, quod Illustrissi. Celsit. Vestra me non ita pridem ad decennium, inter Musicos Illustriss. Aula vestra versantem, liberalissimè sustentarit, & multa non vulgaris erga me clementiae documenta ediderit: humilimè quantaq; possum animi subjectione rogans, ut hoc meum factum Illustriss. Celsit. Vest. pro innata sibi clementia, in bonam partem interpretari, meq; porro benigna affectione clementer complecti velit. DEVS Opt. Max. Il-
