Andante.

PIANO.

First system of the piano score. The right hand features a melodic line with accents and slurs, marked with sf (sforzando) and sf con anima. The left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes, marked with mp (mezzo-piano) and sf.

Violon.

con molta espressionemezza voce

Second system. The Violon part begins with a melodic line marked mezza voce. The piano accompaniment consists of dense chordal textures in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand, marked with p (piano).

Third system. The Violon part continues with a melodic line. The piano accompaniment maintains the dense chordal texture in the right hand and the active bass line in the left hand.

Fourth system. The Violon part concludes with a melodic line. The piano accompaniment continues with the dense chordal texture in the right hand and the active bass line in the left hand.

The musical score is written for a piano and voice. It is in B-flat major (two flats) and 4/4 time. The score is divided into four systems. The first system shows the vocal line and the first two staves of the piano accompaniment. The second system continues the piano accompaniment. The third system shows the vocal line and the piano accompaniment. The fourth system shows the vocal line and the piano accompaniment. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, accidentals, and dynamic markings.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It consists of five systems of staves. The first system has a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The second system continues the piano accompaniment. The third system introduces a new vocal line. The fourth system features the instruction "accelerando" and continues the piano accompaniment. The fifth system includes a vocal line with a 3^e ending and a piano accompaniment. The score is written in a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a 2/4 time signature. The piano part features complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and various dynamic markings such as mp and pp. The vocal part includes melodic lines with slurs and breath marks.

The first system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a single melodic line in G major (one sharp) with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It begins with a half rest, followed by a half note G, a quarter note A, and a half note B. The middle staff is a piano accompaniment in G major, featuring a continuous eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The bottom staff is a bass line in G major, starting with a half rest, followed by a half note G, a quarter note A, and a half note B. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The second system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a single melodic line in G major, continuing the melody from the first system. The middle staff is a piano accompaniment in G major, featuring a continuous eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The bottom staff is a bass line in G major, continuing the bass line from the first system. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The third system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a single melodic line in G major, continuing the melody from the second system. The middle staff is a piano accompaniment in G major, featuring a continuous eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The bottom staff is a bass line in G major, continuing the bass line from the second system. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a single melodic line in G major, continuing the melody from the third system. The middle staff is a piano accompaniment in G major, featuring a continuous eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The bottom staff is a bass line in G major, continuing the bass line from the third system. The system concludes with a double bar line.
