Christopher Warren-Green, Conductor
Aubrey Foard, Tuba

PROGRAM NOTE

Lament reflects the composer's interest in the intersection of eastern and western cultures as evident in the emphasis on pitched percussion and various contrapuntal techniques. Baroque performance practices (strong beat, terraced dynamics) are to be observed.

More specifically, the work utilizes a cinematic perspective, beckoning the listener to reflect on tragedy. In addition, the tuba can be considered to play the role of sage.

Lament also serves as the first movement of the composer's Concerto for Tuba and Orchestra.

Mark Petering (b.1973)

Mark Petering has received numerous awards from organizations such as ASCAP, SCI, and the National Guild of Community Schools of the Arts. He is the winner of the Swan Composer Prize for wind ensemble and winner of the Music Festival of the Hamptons Composition Competition for orchestra.

The premiere of his Hamptons' work Train & Tower after Sibelius made music history as Lukas Foss, the composer, and the Atlantic Chamber Orchestra coordinated the performance with a moving Long Island Rail Road locomotive controlled by the composer. The event was covered by the BBC, NPR, and The New York Times and named a "Top 10" all-time orchestral composition by London critic Jeremy Nicholas for orchestral music evoking railways (Petering at #8 and Berlioz at #9).

Addtionally his Concerto for Clarinet and Strings ("Three Psalms") recently received an honorable mention in the American Prize competition, and his Lament for tuba and orchestra will be premiered by the Charlotte Symphony.

Petering's music has been performed by the Atlantic Chamber Orchestra; the Buffalo Philharmonic; the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra; the Milwaukee Chamber Orchestra; and the Seattle Philharmonic; and recorded by the Czech National Symphony for Albany Records and the Milwaukee Chamber Orchestra New Music Ensemble for Zebrina Records. He is also the recipient of numerous commissions as well as being honored as a participant in the 2005 Aspen Music Festival, studying with George Tsontakis.

Currently, Petering is Associate Professor of Music at Carthage College, one hour north of Chicago. He received his Ph.D. in composition at the University of Minnesota where he studied with Judith Lang Zaimont. He has also studied with Wallace DePue, Marilyn Shrude, Burton Beerman, Maurice Monhardt and John Downey. In his spare time, he enjoys watercolor and lithography, as well as swimming, basketball and golf.
