Poco Andante rit p The flower's I tend - ed with such care a - long the old brick wall, I won - der if they bloom the same or if they bloom at all. I won - der if the dear old folks are free from toil and fret, I won - der if the friends I knew, think of, and love me, yet. Think of, and love me, yet. I won-der if a-gain my feet will tread the beat - ten track, Or if 'twil on - ly be in dreams That I shall wan - der back. I think, or, have I heard it said? that things we lov'd of yore Seem near - er as the days go by and dear - er than be - fore. And
