

"CLAPHAM TOWN END."

YORKSHIRE FOLK SONG, as arranged for
Dr. C.W. BUCK.

Harmonised by SIR EDWARD ELGAR, 1890.

Allegretto.

At Clapham Town end lived an old York-shire Tyke who i dealing I Horseflesh had ne'er met his like, Twör his cresc.

pride that 'I 'aw the hard bargains he'd hit - he'd bit a gerd money but niver been bit. Wi mi

CHORUS.
dum a dum da-ry dum a dum da-ry dum a dum da-ry dum a dum day.

* Ambling of the mouldy steed.

tr. John Morrison, 1990.