First system of musical notation. It consists of three staves: two treble clefs and one grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The first two staves contain melodic lines with various ornaments and dynamics including cresc. and f. The grand staff contains a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes, also marked with cresc. and p. First and second endings are indicated by bracketed measures.

Second system of musical notation. It continues the three-staff format. The melodic lines in the first two staves are marked with mf. The grand staff continues with harmonic accompaniment, also marked with mf. First and second endings are indicated by bracketed measures.

Third system of musical notation. The melodic lines in the first two staves show a gradual deceleration, marked with rit.. The grand staff continues with harmonic accompaniment, also marked with rit..

Fourth system of musical notation. The melodic lines in the first two staves return to a steady pace, marked with a tempo. The grand staff continues with harmonic accompaniment, also marked with a tempo. First and second endings are indicated by bracketed measures.

This musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of six systems of staves. The first system shows the vocal melody in the upper staves and piano accompaniment in the lower staves. Dynamics include f (forte) and p (piano). The second system continues the vocal melody with various articulations and dynamics like rit. (ritardando), f, and rit.. The third system features a piano introduction with p and rit. markings. The fourth system shows the vocal melody with mf (mezzo-forte) dynamics. The fifth system continues the vocal melody with mf dynamics. The sixth system shows the piano accompaniment with various articulations and dynamics like mf.

First system of musical notation. It consists of two staves for the right hand (treble and alto clefs) and two staves for the left hand (treble and bass clefs). The right hand staves contain a melodic line with various ornaments (trills, grace notes) and dynamic markings of mf. The left hand staves contain a bass line with chords and single notes, starting with a p (piano) dynamic.

Second system of musical notation. Similar to the first, it features two staves for the right hand and two for the left hand. The right hand continues the melodic line with ornaments. The left hand provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines, including a p dynamic marking.

Third system of musical notation. This system introduces cresc. (crescendo) markings in both the right and left hands. The right hand features more complex melodic patterns with ornaments. The left hand has a p dynamic marking followed by a mf (mezzo-forte) dynamic.

Fourth system of musical notation. The right hand continues with a melodic line featuring ornaments. The left hand maintains its harmonic role with chords and moving lines, ending with a mf dynamic marking.

First system of musical notation. It consists of three staves: two treble staves at the top and one grand staff (treble and bass) at the bottom. The top two staves contain melodic lines with various ornaments and slurs. The bottom staff contains a rhythmic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The tempo marking ril. (rallentando) appears on the top two staves.

Second system of musical notation. It consists of three staves. The top two staves contain melodic lines with slurs and ornaments. The bottom staff contains a rhythmic accompaniment. The tempo marking a tempo appears on the top two staves.

Third system of musical notation. It consists of three staves. The top two staves contain melodic lines with slurs and ornaments. The bottom staff contains a rhythmic accompaniment. The tempo marking Brillante appears on the top two staves.

Fourth system of musical notation. It consists of three staves. The top two staves contain melodic lines with slurs and ornaments. The bottom staff contains a rhythmic accompaniment. The tempo marking Fine. appears on the top two staves.
