Following the fires, floods and viruses, two survivors on Earth wander in a barren landscape. They come across a door to a bunker in which the Queen of Cans is self-isolating. She welcomes them in to party with her. She takes a fancy to Squib whom she apparently recognises from a previous encounter. They dance together. Lissa recalls the terrible events that devastated the planet. They're all in awe of the Dark One: just uttering the name is fraught with danger. The Queen, however, is aroused and wants to marry Squib while Lissa is intent on stealing the cans of food which the Queen has hoarded. As Queen and Squib find love of sorts, Lissa makes his escape, and the Dark One appears. S/he turns out to be a lonely god of the Underworld and ultimately remains a mystery. As if in a dream, the Queen's soul departs and Squib - who can't find the exit door - is doomed to perish in the bunker.

This musical score page contains four staves of music. The top two staves are for the Queen (Q), and the bottom two are for Alice (A.C.). The piano part is shared between the two sections. Measure 185 shows the Queen singing 'car-ni-val, a can-can car-ni - val!' and Alice playing a rhythmic pattern. Measure 189 starts a recitative section for the Queen, with lyrics 'Wel - come, wel -'. Measures 192 and 195 continue the Queen's vocal line with 'come to the par - ty, the par - ty,' and 'the par, the par, the par - ty!', respectively. The piano part features sustained notes and chords throughout. Measure 190 is a box containing '190 recitative' and '(at last noticing Lissa & Squib)'.
