Her ma soft-ly sighs and tears fill her eyes, As she reads her dear ba-by's plea, — When

The first vocal line is in 3/4 time, key of B-flat major. It begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The melody is simple and lyrical, with the piano accompaniment providing a steady harmonic support.

dad went a - way, to short-en the fray, At the start of this long bit - ter war, — Now Christ-mas bells ring, If peace they should bring, What a won-der-ful pres-ent 'twould be, — How

The second vocal line continues the melody in 3/4 time, key of B-flat major. The piano accompaniment remains consistent, supporting the vocal line with chords and single notes.

Christ-mas was near, her moth-er said, "dear, Just write San - ta Claus a nice note, — And man - y homes yearn for Dad-dy's re - turn, With hon - or, with jus-tice and right? — There's

The third vocal line concludes the piece in 3/4 time, key of B-flat major. The piano accompaniment provides a final harmonic support for the vocal line.

SONGS the SOLDIERS and SAILORS SING

Get these four smashing song hits for your piano, your talking-machine, or your player-piano—and get them right away. Keep up with the boys who sing their way into action.

"It's a Long Way to Berlin"

"We'll sing 'Yankee Doodle' under the Linden with some real live Yankee pep!" That's the real "do or die" spirit of this up-to-the-minute war-song hit. Better than "Tipperary" because it goes straight to the point. The music gets there, too—gets to your heart and your feet. By Arthur Fields and Leon Flatow.

Here's a song that will make you laugh—although it's about a wounded soldier. He was harder hit by his nurse's smile than by the German bullet—and in a far more vulnerable spot. A syncopated melody that won't let your feet keep still. By Johnson, Pease, and Jentes.

"I Don't Want to Get Well"

ON SALE NOW

At all music and department stores, or at any Woolworth, Kresge, Kress, McCrory, Kraft, Grant, or Metropolitan store.

OUR boys on the fields of France, our sailors on the big, gray sea-fighters, and the boys in our training-camps are singing them! The whole country is singing them and dancing to their inspiring melodies! Being sung to tremendous applause in thousands of theatres throughout the land!

Try over the choruses and you will know why. Don't wait until you hear everybody singing them—get copies of all four of these songs now and be the first to sing them.

These songs are on sale at practically every music store in the United States and Canada. Look for their displays of the songs and reproductions of this advertisement in their windows.

If you have difficulty in locating a dealer, however, you may order direct from us, 15c each, any 7 for $1.

Special Note: The very next time you go to a cabaret, dance-hall, or other place where there is music, be sure to request the leader to play these four songs that the soldiers and sailors sing and love.

But don't miss them—don't miss hearing them, singing them, or dancing to their inspiring, martial melodies.

"Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here"

Here's a song you think you know. But did you ever hear the verses or did you ever see the music? It's all here—and it's all the sort of stuff that puts pep into everybody. One of the greatest marching refrains ever written—and just as good as a fox-trot or one-step. By D. A. Esrom, Theodore Morse, and Arthur Sullivan.

Your skin will be awfully thick if this song doesn't get deep down underneath. You can see our brave boys coming home, you can see Victory, you can see the joy of duty nobly done and the world at peace again.

The melody—well, it's just the right one for this matchless song. By Howard Johnson, Coleman Goetz, and George W. Meyer.

"Homeward Bound"
