The first system consists of a single treble staff at the top and a grand staff (treble and bass) below it. The music is in a minor key and features complex rhythmic patterns with many beamed notes and slurs. A fermata is placed over the final note of the first staff.

The second system shows a single treble staff with two endings. The first ending is marked '1.' and the second ending is marked '2.'. The notation includes slurs and dynamic markings.

The third system features a grand staff with two endings. The first ending is marked '1.' and the second ending is marked '2. loco'. The 'loco' section is indicated by a dashed line and the word 'loco' above the staff. The music continues with complex rhythmic patterns.

The fourth system continues the grand staff with a 'loco' section. The notation includes slurs and dynamic markings, maintaining the complex rhythmic style of the previous systems.

Ossia
più facile.

The 'Ossia più facile' section is written on a single bass staff, providing a simplified version of the preceding musical material.

The fifth system features a grand staff with a 'ff' (fortissimo) dynamic marking. The music includes triplets and complex rhythmic patterns. A fermata is placed over the final note of the first staff.
